Summary

As a first-year Software Engineering student at Yaşar University, I bring a lifelong passion for computers and technology. From an early age, I was captivated by the mechanics behind computer games, which sparked my interest in coding at the age of 12. Since then, I have continuously pursued knowledge and development in various technological fields.

During high school, I focused intensively on project development, gaining comprehensive experience in both backend and frontend technologies. My coding journey began with HTML & CSS and advanced to Python at age 13. Recently, I have delved into artificial intelligence and possess entry-level knowledge in this area.

I am proficient in multiple programming languages, including Swift, Python, JavaScript, TypeScript, HTML, and CSS. My expertise also spans technologies such as Flask, TailwindCSS, SQL, MongoDB, Bootstrap, and FastAPI.

My career goal is to develop innovative applications and technologies that enhance people's lives. I am committed to contributing to human advancement through impactful projects and am eager to apply my skills and enthusiasm in dynamic internship opportunities.
